Nestled in the mountains of Pacifico in Playas del Coco, Casa Toscana offers a beautiful Tuscan countryside feel. Walking through this house every detail will invite you to relax and forget about your daily routine. The large stainless kitchen, along with multiple indoor and outdoor spaces provide great relaxing opportunities. The house has a big terrace where you can enjoy the outdoors; from cooking, swimming or just take the sun while you watch the sunset. On the second floor the main living room is the heart of the house, the French wood doors open to a Juliet balcony that allows you to enjoy the beauty of Costa Rica. The bedrooms of Casa Toscana are equally charming, with walls of soft tones, colorful details and windows that give freshness to the room. The Master bedroom is located on the third floor offering privacy, it has a huge master bathroom with walk in closet, bathtub and walk in shower plus double vanity. Spending days on the water or at the Pacifico Beach Club are but a few of the options in and around Playas del Coco and The Gulf of Papagayo.
